

Xclusive is a company in Uganda producing cuttings for the worldwide market. We consist of 3 departments; Xclusive Young Plants, Kalanchoe and Chrysanthemum. Our total production area is about 11 hectares and we work together with 600 colleagues every day to optimally serve our customers. Xclusive is known for the innovative way of working, our care for employees and the community around us and our culture in which we achieve our goals together. For one of our production departments we are looking for a:

Operations Manager

Tasks and responsibilities:

- Coordinating processes between production, planning and expedition
- Process/protocol development
- Customer satisfaction
- Budgeting
- Team/people management (up to 200 staff)
- Labour planning

Requirements:

- Bachelor's degree in Business Administration, Logistics or Horticulture
- 3-5 years working experience
- Strong communication skills
- Team player
- Good command of English
- Hands on personality
- Experience with Excel. Experience with PAT software is of added value

Our offer:

- A challenging position with creative freedom and personal development opportunities
- Working in an international environment
- A good salary with excellent pension provisions
- Free housing on the farm
- A unique experience in a truly beautiful country

Are you interested?

Applications for this vacancy can be sent to Roelof Gunnink (the Finance & HR Director) until May 31, 2022 via roelof.gunnink@xclusiveuganda.com. The first round of talks will take place (online) at the beginning of June, with a possible second round taking place in Uganda shortly after.

Are you interested, but do you have any questions before applying? Then we can always schedule an exploratory meeting to answer questions. You can also email roelof.gunnink@xclusiveuganda.com for this too.